YIELD

Know where you are permitted to ride. Respect private property.

Share the trails and make friends with other trail users. Slow down, then stop when you meet riders on horseback. Avoid sudden movements. Take your helmet off to be identifiable to the horse.

Be part of the solution. Volunteer to help maintain trails and protect our natural resources. Join an organized club in your area.

Avoid wet areas and waterways. They are a vital resource for many plants and animals.

Cutting switchbacks and taking shortcuts damages trails and causes erosion. Going off trail can destroy wildlife habitat and spread noxious weeds that damage our ecosystem.

Respect seasonal closures. Wildlife need time to reproduce and raise their young undisturbed.

View wildlife from a distance. When they flee they use valuable energy reserves.

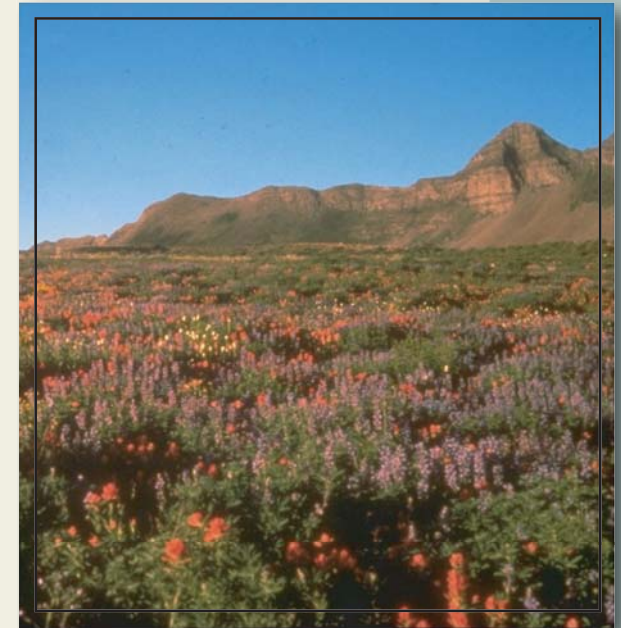

MOTORIZED TRAVEL OFF DESIGNATED ROUTES FOR GAME RETRIEVAL IS NOT ALLOWED.

FEDERAL AND STATE REGULATIONS

All OHVs operated or transported on public lands, roads or trails in the state of Utah must display a current OHV registration sticker. The Utah Division of Motor Vehicles handles all OHV registrations.

No one under the age of 8 is allowed to operate an OHV on public lands, roads or trails. Residents between the age of 8 and 15 may ride, provided they possess an Education Certificate issued by Utah State Parks and Recreation. All riders under 18 years of age must wear a helmet. For information on Education Certificates call 1-800-OHV-RIDE.

All OHVs are required to have a muffler and spark arrestor.

Please be aware of fire restrictions. To find out about current fire restrictions in the area, call 801-342-5100 or visit www.utahfireinfo.gov.

Equestrians are required to use only certified weed-free hay, straw or mulch. Approved products for livestock feed on public lands include pellets, hay cubes, processed grains and certified hay, straw and mulch.

Check with the Pleasant Grove Ranger District for the most current information on conditions and updates on seasonal or temporary closures.

Remember:
All routes and areas on the Uinta National Forest are closed to motorized use unless designated open in the Travel Plan (Interagency Travel Map) or posted on the ground.
